Governor Wolf's Advisory Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs to Host Town Hall

Harrisburg, PA – Governor Tom Wolf's Advisory Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs will join with Senator Jay Costa, Allegheny County Executive Rich Fitzgerald, and community members to host a town hall and panel discussion in Pittsburgh. This event will discuss economic opportunities and challenges facing the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community, centered around the theme United Asian Voices for Regional Economic Empowerment.

This event is one in a series of town halls hosted by the Commission to learn about the challenges facing the AAPI communities and how the Commission can leverage its collective strengths to effectively advocate, promote resources for, and best serve the state's diverse AAPI communities.

Anyone interested in attending may register on Eventbrite <http://bit.ly/2DX2rfy>; registration is free.
